

FOURTH CONFERENCE ON CLINICAL APHASIOLOGY

New Orleans -- April 24-26, 1974

PROGRAM

INVITED PRESENTATION -- Robert Brookshire, Chairman

What Dichotic Listening Tells Us About Levels of Speech and Language, Larry Hughes and Charles I. Berlin

APPROACHES TO THE STUDY OF APHASIA I -- Margaret Lemme, Chairman

EEG Measures in Left Brain Injured Aphasic Patients and Normal Controls, K. York Haaland and Robert T. Wertz

Bilateral Tachistoscopic Word Perception in Aphasic and Normal Subjects, by W. H. Moore, Jr. and William E. Weidner

Classical Conditioning in Aphasic Adults: Diagnostic and Therapeutic Implications, by Michael J. Collins, and Robert T. Wertz

APPROACHES TO THE STUDY OF APHASIA II -- John C. Rosenbek, Chairman

Effects of Semantic Relatedness Upon the Verbal Retention of Aphasic Adults, by Robert C. Marshall

Production, Comprehension and Imitation of Codified Gestures in Aphasics, by Hanna Ulatowska, Libby Kumin, and Edith Kaplan

The Effects of Supplemental Oxygen Respiration on Aphasic Hemiplegic Adults, by Sherry L. Altschuler

PREDICTING RECOVERY FROM APHASIA -- Pat Holtzapple, Chairman

A Statistical Procedure for Predicting Recovery From Aphasia, Bruce E. Porch, Robert T. Wertz, Michael J.
Collins

APHASIA AND MOTOR SPEECH -- William R. Berry, Chairman

Referral: "54-year-old, male with severe expressive aphasia; please evaluate and treat as indicated"
Discussed by A. Damien Martin and John C. Rosenbek