Model-Driven Remediation of Dysgraphia
A.E. Hillis, A. Caramazza 84

Treatment of Aphasia Through Family Member Training
N.N. Simmons, K.P. Kearns, G. Potechin 106

Appraisal and Diagnosis of Neurogenic Communication Disorders
in Remote Settings
R.T. Wertz, N.F. Dronkers, E. Bernstein-Ellis,
Y. Shubitowski, R. Elman, G.K. Shenaut, R.T. Knight,
J.L. Deal 117

Aphasic Patients' Performance on a Mental Status Examination
L.A.C. Golper, M.T. Rau, B. Erskine, J.J. Langhans,
J. Houlihan 124

Handwritten vs Computer Responses on Porch Index of Communicative Ability Graphic Subtests
M. Selinger, T.E. Prescott, R. Katz 136

Verbosity and Labeling Behavior: The Performance of Right Hemisphere and Non-brain-damaged Adults on an Inferential Picture Description Task E.L. Mackisack, P.S. Myers, J.R. Duffy	143
More Differences Between Writing with the Dominant and Nondominant Hand by Normal Geriatric Subjects: Eight Perceptual and Eight Computerized Measures on a Sentence Dictation Task A.M. Hansen, M.R. McNeil, D.K. Vetter	152
Are We Speaking the Same Language? When is a Mild Impairment a Mild Impairment? L.S. DeYoung	158
A Dissociation Between Auditory Comprehension and Sentence Completion: Theoretical and Clinical Implications C. Linebaugh	166
The Effect of Semantic Redundancy on Auditory Comprehension in Aphasia A.E. Clark, C.R. Flowers	174
Does Contextually Related Action Facilitate Auditory Comprehension? Performance Across Three Conditions by High and Low Comprehenders L.F. Graham, P. Holtzapple, L.L. LaPointe	180
Accuracy and Response Times for Semantic Judgments and Lexical Decisions with Left- and Right-Hemisphere Lesions J.C. Arvedson, M.R. McNeil	188
Effect of Story Content on Narrative Discourse of Aphasic Adults D. Bottenberg, M. Lemme, N. Hedberg	202
Cohesive Harmony in Aphasic Discourse and its Significance in Listener Perception of Coherence E. Armsrong	210
Effects of Picture Stimuli on Discourse Production by Aphasic Patients G.C. Potechin, L.E. Nicholas, R.H. Brookshire	216
Discourse Before and After the Onset of Aphasia C. Matthews	221
A Longitudinal Study of Word Fluency Response Strategies in Two Aphasic Subjects C.A. Coelho, M.L. Kimbarow, M. Boyle	233
Nonverbal Problem Solving in Aphasic and Nonaphasic Patients with Computer Presented and Actual Stimuli G.R. Wolfe, M. Davidoff, R. Katz	243
Hanoi Revisited T.E. Prescott, J.L. Gruber, M. Olson, K.C. Fuller	249

Evidence for a Motor Performance Deficit Versus a Misapplied Rule System in the Temporal Organization of Utterances in Apraxia of Speech E.A. Strand, M.R. McNeil	260
Effects of Word Length on Lip EMG Activity in Apraxia of Speech M.S. Hough, R.J. Klich	271
The Use of Prolonged Speech in the Treatment of Apraxia of Speech H. Southwood	277
